As of July 01, 2001, Minnesota’s Freedom of Access to Complementary Care Law (Statute Chapter 146A) requires that you receive, and acknowledge that you have received by your signature on the back of this page, the following information prior to your treatment.

“THE STATE OF MINNESOTA HAS NOT ADOPTED ANY EDUCATIONAL OR TRAINING STANDARDS FOR UNLICENSED COMPLEMENTARY AND ALTERNATIVE HEALTH CARE PRACTITIONERS. THIS STATEMENT OF CREDENTIALS IS FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY.

Under Minnesota law, an unlicensed complementary and alternative health care practitioner may not provide a medical diagnosis or recommend discontinuance of medically prescribed treatments. If a client desires a diagnosis from a licensed physician, chiropractor, nurse, osteopath, physical therapist, dietitian, nutritionist, acupuncture practitioner, athletic trainer, or any other type of health care provider, the client may seek such services at any time.” Complaints – If the Client has a complaint or concern about the care or services they have received, the Client may also contact the Office of Unlicensed Complementary and Alternative Health Care Practice located in the Minnesota Department of Health, PO BOX 64882, St. Paul, MN, 55164-0882. Telephone: 651.201.3728. Fax: 651.201.3839.

FEES, PAYMENT, INSURANCE OF MARCH 1, 2017

60-minute session is $120.00 (sliding scale available)

90-minute session is $180.00

120-minute session is $240.00

Payment is accepted by cash or check and is to be paid in full at the time of treatment. I do not take insurance. However, you may contact your health care insurer directly to see if they will cover these services and to obtain reimbursement from them, if allowed. I will provide a receipt for purposes of insurance reimbursement and treatment notes as they apply. Loey Colebeck, Mind is Body Therapies and Adagio Holistic Therapies, LLC require 48 hour notice for cancellations.

Change of Price – While changes in session fees can occur, reasonable notice of those changes is provided by session fees being posted in the Practitioner’s office, or by the client asking when scheduling the appointment.

Theory of Treatment – The state requires a “plain language” summary of the “theoretical approach used to provide service to clients”. The Practitioner utilizes techniques that promote innate self-healing capacities.

Right to Current Information – Clients have the right to complete and current information concerning the Practitioner’s assessment and recommended service that is to be provided, including the expected duration of the service to be provided.

Right to Confidentiality – Client records are confidential and will not be released unless authorized by the client in writing or as otherwise provided for by law.

Right to Self Access – Clients have the right to access their own records, maintained by the Practitioner, in accordance with state statute 144.291 to 144.298.

Personal Interaction – Clients have the right to expect courteous treatment, free from verbal, physical, or sexual abuse.

Other Treatment Available – Other alternative therapy services are available to the Client in this same community. These can be located by asking the Practitioner, the provider who referred you to this practitioner, or the following practitioner database: www.sedibac.com.

Right of Agency – The Client has the right to choose freely among available practitioners and to change practitioners after services have begun, within the limits of health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs.

Records Transfer – The Client has the right to coordinated transfer of your records when there will be a change in the provider of services.

Right of Refusal – The Client may refuse services or treatment, unless otherwise provided by law.

Right of Non-Retribution – The Client has the right to assert any and all of the above mentioned rights without retaliation from the Practitioner.
